PART I

(a) Time and place of meeting

1. The time and place of meeting both general and special shall be fixed at the discretion of the Secretary subject to the approval of the President.

(b) The manner in which notice of ordinary and special meetings and adjourned meetings shall be given

2. A notice of meeting shall be sent or circulated at least 48 hours before every meeting to every member. No business, not on the Agenda shall be considered at any meeting without the sanction of the President.

No. 1-1/65-LSG.—The following bye-laws made by the Notified Area Committee, Dhalli, in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of section 31 of the Punjab Municipal Act, 1911 (Punjab Act No. III of 1911) as applied to Himachal Pradesh, and as extended to the Notified Area Committee, Dhalli, having been approved, where necessary, by the Administrator (Lieutenant Governor), Himachal Pradesh, as required by sub-section (2) of the said section are hereby published for general information, and these shall come into force within the limits of the Notified Area Committee, Dhalli, in Mahasu district, Himachal Pradesh with effect from the 1st July, 1965:—

3. The notice to attend a meeting shall specify the business, proposed to be transacted thereat, and shall state the place, the day and the hour of the meeting.

(c) The quorum necessary for the transaction of business at ordinary meetings

4. The quorum necessary at all meetings of the Committee shall be five.

(d) Conduct of proceedings at meetings and adjourned meetings

5. Save when procedure is taken under provisions of section 25(2) of the Act, meetings of the Notified Area Committee shall be held on the 8th day of every month unless any other date is specially fixed by the President.

(i) No matter shall be laid before a special meeting save by direction of an ordinary meeting or by order of the President or the Secretary.

(ii) Any member wishing to bring any matter before the Committee should send his proposal to the Secretary who shall submit it to the President for information. The President will send the proposal to the Committee except in special cases in which he may consider this undesirable when he will record his reason in writing for refusing to do so.

(iii) No decision of the Committee shall be re-opened before the lapse of six months after it has been recorded except in compliance with an order of the Local Self Government or with the permission in writing of the President.

6. No member may be represented at a meeting by proxy.

7. (a) All business shall be conducted in Hindi or English.

(b) No motion if opposed shall be entered as passed until it has been put to the vote and any member dissenting shall be entitled to have his name recorded.

(c) No member except the proposer of a resolution shall speak more than once except with permission of the Chairman on that resolution. The proposer after hearing all others who wish to speak may again address the Committee.

(d) All other points of procedure at any meeting shall be decided at the discretion of the Chairman.

8. The Chairman may adjourn any meeting from time to time, but no business shall be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place, unless due notice that such business will be brought forward has been given.

9. All meetings shall be held with open doors unless, a question on order of other special matter shall arise when the Chairman may order the room to be cleared of strangers.

10. No written speech shall be delivered.

11. After a motion has been proposed and seconded any member may propose an amendment thereto. An amendment that is not seconded falls through.

PART II
